Two distinct concert programs of music by Henry Cowell (1897–1965) will include Cowell's notorious piano music and a wealth of little-known works by the original American experimentalist: Set of Five (1952), Quartet Euphometric (1916–19), Sonata for Violin & Piano (1945), the complete organ works, numerous unpublished songs, and other selections.

This two-day event will also include an exhibition of Cowell's manuscripts, notes, and artwork at both concerts, and a pre-concert panel discussion on November 13th featuring JOHN DUFFY (Meet the Composer founder, student of both Cowell and Aaron Copland), JOEL SACHS (New Juilliard Ensemble, Continuum, author of forthcoming Cowell biography), legendary record producer GEORGE AVAKIAN, violinist ANAHID AJEMIAN, pianist SARAH CAHILL, and CHARLES AMIRKHANIAN of Other Minds.
